The Invitatory and Psalter

Officiant Oh God, let our mouth proclaim your praise.

People And your glory all the day long.

All Praise to the holy, and undivided Trinity, one God: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Officiant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

All O come let us worship.

Venite, Psalm 95, 1-7, spoken

All Come, let us sing to the Lord; *
let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving * and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, *
and a great King above all gods.
In his hand are the caverns of the earth, *
and the heights of the hills are his also.
The sea is his, for he made it, *
and his hands have molded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, *
and kneel before the Lord our Maker.
For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. *
Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!

Psalm 107:1-3, 23-32, sung

Psalm setting: Papadacos

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is ' good, *
and his mercy endures for ' ever.

Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed pro- ' claim * that he redeemed them from the hand of the ' foe.

Some went down to the sea in ' ships *
and plied their trade in deep ' waters;

They beheld the works of the ' Lord * and his wonders in the ' deep.

Then he spoke, and a stormy wind a- ' rose, *
which tossed high the waves of the ' sea.

They mounted up to the heavens and fell back to the ' depths; *
their hearts melted because of their ' peril.

They reeled and staggered like ' drunkards * and were at their wits' ' end.

Then they cried to the Lord in their ' trouble, *
and he delivered them from their dis- ' tress.

He stilled the storm to a ' whisper *
and quieted the waves of the ' sea.

Then were they glad because of the ' calm, * and he brought them to the harbor they were ' bound for.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his ' mercy *
and the wonders he does for his ' children.

Let them exalt him in the congregation of the ' people * and praise him in the council of the ' elders.

The Lessons

First Lesson: Job 38:1-11

Elizabeth Ring

The LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind:

"Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?

Gird up your loins like a man,

I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

"Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?

Tell me, if you have understanding.

Who determined its measurements—surely you know!

Or who stretched the line upon it?

On what were its bases sunk,

or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

"Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb?—

when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band,
and prescribed bounds for it,
and set bars and doors,
and said, 'Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped!'"

Second Lesson: 2 Corinthians 6:1-13

Elizabeth Ring

As we work together with Christ, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says,

"At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you."

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see-- we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return-- I speak as to children-- open wide your hearts also.

Canticle II: "A Song of Praise" S236

1. Glo - ry to you, Lord God of our fa - thers; you are wor - thy of praise; glo - ry to you. 2. Glo - ry to you for the ra - di-ance of your ho - ly Name; we will praise you and high - ly ex - alt you for ev - er.

3. Glory to you in the splendor of your temple; *
on the throne of your majesty, glory to you.
4. Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim; *
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

5. Glory to you, beholding the depths; *
in the high vault of heaven, glory to you.
6. Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; *
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

Elizabeth Ring

When evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let us go across to the other side." And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?" And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

Anthem

"We Walk by Faith" by E. W. Hancock

*We walk by faith, and not by sight;
No gracious words we hear
From Him who spoke as none e'er spoke;
But we believe Him near.*

*That, when our life of faith is done;
In realms of clearer light,
We may behold you as you are,
With full and endless sight.*

The Apostles' Creed

Officiant Let us confess our faith using the words of the Apostle's Creed

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

Officiant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Officiant Let us pray.
People

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Look upon your congregation;
Give to your people the blessing of peace.
Declare your glory among the nations;
And your wonders among all peoples.
Do not let the oppressed be ashamed and turned away;
Never forget the lives of your poor.
Continue your loving kindness to those that know you;
And your favor of those who are true of heart.
Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning;
So shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

The Collect of the Day

Lisa Fitzgibbons

The General Thanksgiving

Officiant Having been gathered by the Spirit, fed by the Word, and transformed by God's vast grace, let us pray together:

People Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made.
We bless you for our creation, preservation,
and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to your service,
and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Officiant Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O God, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting.

People Amen.

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.
