Opening Hymn

Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy

John Corrie & The St. Bart's Virtual Choir
The Hymnal 1982, #482

Opening Acclamation

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Presider: Creator of the universe, open our lips,

People: And we will praise you.

Presider: Sustainer of life, open our ears,

People: And we will hear you.

Presider: Redeemer of the world, open our hearts,

People: And we will love you.

The Collect of the Season, Daily Prayers for All Seasons (2014), p. 130

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Presider: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Let us pray.

Gracious God, the air sings with songs of glory, water flashes silver with creation, and the forests bloom with leaves for healing nations. May your light and love fill our hearts and souls and minds, that we may share your abundant grace with the world. Amen.

The Lessons

A Reading from the Book of Genesis 1:24-31

Elizabeth Ring

And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.' And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, 'Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.' So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.' God said, 'See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.' And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 8

Elizabeth Ring

- 1 O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!
- 2 Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
- 3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
- 4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
- 5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?
- 6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor;
- 7 You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet:
- 8 All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,
- 9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.
- 10 O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

The Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Presider: The Holy Gospel of our Savior, Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, O Christ.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Presider: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Stewardship Minute

Arthur Woolverton

The Affirmation of Faith, Earth Creed, Liturgy for Earth Week 2021, Diocese of Maine

Presider: Let us declare our faith in God.

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

All: We have come to renew our covenant with God and with one another in Christ Jesus, our Lord.
We have come to help protect God's creation.
We have come as followers of Jesus to commit ourselves anew to one another and to heal injustice and poverty.
We have come to stand together against all threats to life.
We have come to discover some new beauty every day in God's creation:
the sunrise and sunset, birds, flowers and trees, rainbows in the sky, the stars,
the many forms of life in the forest.
We have come to listen to the "music of the universe"- water flowing over rocks, the wind, trees bending in the wind, raindrops pattering the roof.
We will remember always that God speaks to us through the beauty of his creation, and we will try our best to answer God's call to reverence all that he has created.
Amen.

Prayers of the People

John Perkins

Eternal God:

We thank you for the beauty of the World:
for the teeming life of the seas,
the flight of birds, and the diversity of animal life.
Grant us grace to treat Creation with respect and care;
to protect endangered species,
to preserve the variety of habitats,
and to honor the delicate balance of nature.

God of life:

hear our prayer.

We thank you for the wealth of blessings from land and sea;
for the power of wind, and the warmth of sun.

We pray for the nations of the earth,
give us the will to cherish this planet and to use its resources sustainably for the welfare of all.

God of justice:

hear our prayer.

We pray for the faithful witness of the Church,
called to reconcile and heal:
For this parish and Anne, our Guest Celebrant, for Thomas our Bishop, and Michael our Presiding Bishop.

In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we pray for the congregation of St. Philips' in Wiscasset and for our siblings in common mission in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

In our Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we pray for The Church in the Province of West Indies.

God of grace:

hear our prayer.

We pray for the human family.

We exult in our diversity and giftedness, we repent of our sins, divisions and violence.

By the power of your Spirit, restore your image within us.

As every human being is known and loved by you, may we care for one another with love and respect.

We pray for those you have commended to our care:

Bobby; Charles; Kellan; Pat; Mackenzie; Scott; Marcella; Tim; Sam; Matthew; Jean; Sally; Zoe; Antonia; Al; Sarah; Lee; Ryan; Brook; Alex; Olga; Henry; Virginia & Jamil; Ed; Kathy; Cora; David; Lu; Peter; Hannah; Paul & Faith; and Tom.

God of compassion:

hear our prayer.

We pray for those who have died, whom we entrust to your eternal love;
may we support and comfort those who mourn.

Susan Webber

God of peace:

hear our prayer.

Concluding Collect, Liturgy for Earth Week 2021, Diocese of Maine

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Gracious God, open our eyes that we may see the abundance of your creative love in all that surrounds and sustains us. Enable us to become people of hope and life, who plant the seeds of your earthly garden for the benefit of all. Help us to be gardeners and caregivers for the earth that is home for all life. Fill us with your gentle love, that we may walk tenderly on the earth, cooperating with your intention of abundant love and life.
Amen.

The Confession, Liturgy for Earth Week 2021, Diocese of Maine

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Presider: We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins:

All: We confess to you our blindness to your presence in creation, and our disregard for the creatures of this planet, including trees.
Our human hearts are set on personal gain and material wealth,
and our drive for more has caused great damage.
Forgive us our sins against your beloved creatures and empower us to walk humbly with you and with one another.
Reconnect us with the web of creation and lead us to the community you envision for us,
the creatures of your beloved Planet Earth. Amen.

The Absolution

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

God our Creator is merciful, and forgives our sins, for the sake of the one who became flesh and dwelt among us, Jesus Christ our Lord. God gives us new hearts to bear Christ's love to all inhabitants of the earth, and to advocate for their protection and well-being. Amen.

The Peace

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Presider: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Please stand in place and turn to face your neighbors to offer a greeting or sign of peace.

The Offertory Sentence

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Alleluia. See what love has been given to us, that we should be called children of God; for indeed so we are.

Alleluia. ~ 1 John 3:1

The Offering is brought forward.

Offertory Prayer

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Presider and People: All things come of Thee, O Lord, and of Thine own have we given Thee. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving, Scottish Episcopal Church Eucharistic Prayer I - Liturgy 1982

Presider: The Lord be with you.

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

People: And also with you.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Worship and praise belong to you, Father, in every place and at all times. All power is yours. You created the heavens and established the earth; you sustain in being all that is. In Christ your Son our life and yours are brought together in a wonderful exchange. He made his home among us that we might for ever dwell in you.

Through your Holy Spirit you call us to new birth in a creation restored by love. As children of your redeeming purpose we offer you our praise, with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, speaking the hymn of your unending glory:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest,
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Glory and thanksgiving be to you, most loving Creator, for the gift of your Son born in human flesh. He is the Word existing beyond time, both source and final purpose, bringing to wholeness all that is made. Obedient to your will he died upon the Cross. By your power you raised him from the dead. He broke the bonds of evil and set your people free to be his Body in the world.

On the night when he was given up to death, knowing that his hour had come, having loved his own, he loved them to the end. At supper with his disciples he took bread and offered you thanks. He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying: "Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you." After supper, he took the cup, he offered you thanks, and gave it to them saying: "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant; it is poured out for you, and for all, that sins may be forgiven. Do this in remembrance of me."

We now obey your Son's command. We recall his blessed passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension; and we look for the coming of his Kingdom. Made one with him, we offer you these gifts and with them ourselves, a single, holy, living sacrifice. Hear us, most merciful Father, and send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that, overshadowed by his life-giving power, they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for the service of your Kingdom.

Help us, who are baptised into the fellowship of Christ's Body to live and work to your praise and glory; may we grow together in unity and love until at last, in your new creation, we enter into our heritage in the company of the saints, the apostles and prophets, and of all our siblings, living and departed.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be to you, God of all ages, world without end. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Presider: We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ

People: We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The Invitation

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Presider: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The Presider may add this or another sentence:

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Everyone is welcome to receive communion here at God's table. The ushers will invite you to come forward in the center aisle and receive the bread at the front one at a time. There is hand sanitizer available here at the front as well. Please use the side aisles to return to your seat once you have received. If instead you prefer to receive a blessing, please indicate that by crossing your hands across your chest. If you need gluten free bread, please let us know when you come forward and we are happy to accommodate.

Music at Communion

I come with joy to meet my Lord
The Hymnal 1982, #304

*John Corrie &
The St. Bart's Virtual Choir*

Post Communion Prayer, Adapted, Churches together in Britain and Ireland – resources for creation time.

Presider: Let us pray.

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

All: Create in us a new heart and a new vision, O God, that the gifts of your Spirit may work in us and renew the face of the earth.
May we be one with you
so that our work is yours
and your work is ours.
Lead us to transform our lives to reflect your glory in Creation;
through Jesus Christ our Savior who is alive with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God now and for ever.
Amen.

The Blessing *

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Go forth now to care for God's world.

Use resources wisely. Share your knowledge.

Sacrifice where necessary. Live in harmony with all creation.

Go out into all the world as prophets of a new way of living and preach the good news to all.

And the blessing of the Creator God, the Risen Son, and the Promised Holy Spirit bless you that you might be a blessing to others today and always.

Amen.

The Dismissal

The Rev. Anne C. Fowler

Presider: Let us bless our God and all Creation. Alleluia, alleluia.

People: Thanks be to God, Alleluia, alleluia!

We ask that you remain in your seats until the ushers dismiss you row by row to exit the sanctuary. If you re-enter the church please remember to put your mask back on while in the building.

* Crafted from two sources: the first was a prayer included in the Creation materials published by Green Anglicans, Anglican Church of Southern African Environmental Network; the second source from Prayers for the Planet, at a service at Hinde Street Methodist Church, London, before the Climate March, December 2005.

Announcements

Art Festival

Thanks to all who spread the word to Maine artists to enter this year's Yarmouth Art Festival! The jury selected 179 works that will be displayed at St. Bart's during the event, Oct. 20-23 (with full Covid precautions), and online for two weeks afterward.

The Vestry has decided that all net proceeds from entry fees and sales commissions will go to Yarmouth Food Pantry, St. Elizabeth's Jubilee Center in Portland and Friendship House in South Portland.

If you're interested in helping with any aspect of the show - publicity, setup, art intake and return, art hanging - contact Joe Michaud, michaud.joe@gmail.com to be connected with the appropriate team. To volunteer during the show, see announcement below.

Art Show - Just a few more volunteer slots that need to be filled!

* Chaperones (greeting customers, answering questions, and processing payments)

* Art Return Helpers (assisting artists with picking up their unsold artwork)

If you have any questions or to sign up, please contact Anne Jacobs, ajacobs207@gmail.com.

Stewardship Campaign

The Annual Pledge Campaign for 2022 is officially upon us. The theme of the campaign is "Giving with Gratitude for our St. Bartholomew's Community." You should have received a package of material from our committee via the postal service this past week. We also sent it by e-mail. You will be hearing short messages from your fellow parishioners at services during the month of October. We ask that you give prayerful consideration to your pledge for 2022 and return the pledge card, or visit the website to make your pledge, by the second week in November so that we can announce the final tally on November 21. This allows our Treasurer and the Finance Committee to prepare a final budget for your approval at our Annual Meeting in January. We thank you for your attention to this important matter and welcome any questions that you might have. Michele Johns, Chair, Paule French, Bill MacLeod, and Jamie Michaud.

New Youth Education Leader!

The Education Committee and the Vestry are very excited to welcome our new Youth Education Leader—Michelle Betz. Michelle moved to Yarmouth about a year ago from Baltimore, along with her daughter and two young granddaughters. The Betz family discovered St Bart's by finding our Youth Program offerings on our website and watched Pal's online Homilies over the course of the pandemic. Michelle brings a passion for teaching and working with all age groups. In Baltimore, Michelle created and directed youth programs for over 80 kids at a large church there. Her prior experience and enthusiastic outlook will be real pluses for continuing to build and expand on our success to date. Michelle looks forward to meeting all of you!

Gathering Notes and COVID Protocols

Dear Friends,

The Regathering Committee and the Vestry continue to monitor the current increased spread of COVID-19 and its Delta variant. If you are concerned or in a high risk group please remember that you have the option of streaming the service from home. If you attend in-person services please continue to follow the safety protocols that we have in place (see current list below). It is important to wear a mask and to maintain social distancing.

Your Vestry & Regathering Committee

COVID Safety Protocols

Communion (bread only)

Clergy will bring the bread to the front of the altar area and stand in the center, the congregation would come forward one at a time (using the ushers to go through the rows and let people know when to go up as usual). The clergy would use hand sanitizer at the beginning of the Great Thanksgiving and after finishing distribution.

Offering

The offertory basket will be on a small table next to the usher as people enter. People can place their offerings in the basket as they enter. One usher would bring forward the offering basket at the offertory point in the service.

Passing of the Peace

We ask that everyone stand in place at your chairs and turn to face your neighboring groups of chairs to offer a greeting/peace sign/bow. (no physical contact - handshakes/hugs).

Chalice Bearer

There will be one VESTED chalice bearer per service for prayers of the people and/or readings and to assist the clergy to prepare the altar before communion.

Masking for Clergy (Vaccinated)

Clergy may be unmasked while they are up on the altar area/platform and unmasked to preach. Clergy to be masked while distributing communion.

Transitional Worship Committee News

Orange is the color the Episcopal Church has selected to represent victims of gun violence. On the first Sunday of each month, we will light an orange candle to memorialize those individuals, across the United States, whose lives were lost to gun violence in the past month. This single candle replaces our earlier tradition of lighting white tapers, each representing an individual, in front of the altar. The numbers lost to gun violence are now so high that we are moving to a single, orange candle.

A Call to all Chefs for Gourmet Frozen Foods

St. Bart's is fortunate to have many talented chefs in its ranks. While we cannot hold the luncheon this year, we are excited to offer great food at the Gourmet Frozen Food table. Thus, we are seeking all interested chefs to contribute to a diverse menu of frozen soups and entrees that will be sold and distributed the day of the fair (December 4th). Please consider making one or more of your specialties for the table.

Please contact Barbara Barhydt (jbml@gwi.net) as soon as possible, if you are interested in volunteering or if you have any questions. We need to know who is interested in participating by November 15th. We look forward to another successful year in offering delectable meals to go! Co-chairs, Barbara Barhydt and Michele Johns.

Crafts Needed

Calling all crafters!! There's still plenty of time to make a craft before this year's Fair. You can make 6 of any item, or more if you think appropriate. Table decor/linens, scarves, pot holders, mittens, hats, face masks, coasters, soaps, candles, bath salts/bombs, wooden or metal crafts or whatever you would like to contribute. If you need suggestions or have questions, please contact Harriet Davis, harriet.davis@gmail.com. Also, if you have license plates, please let us know. Joe Michaud creates wonderful things from license plates.

Jewelry, Handbags, Scarves Needed!

Do you (or someone you know) have jewelry you no longer wear? The St. Bart's Jewelry elves await your donations to sort, organize, research, price, and/or polish! We accept all jewelry - necklaces, bracelets, rings, earrings, pins, cufflinks... real or costume...and broken items as we can repair. We welcome donations of handbags and scarves in very good condition. Designer items are best sellers. Please drop off at the St. Bart's office with a note on the bag or box for Anne Jacobs. If you have any questions, feel free to email Anne Jacobs, ajacobs207@gmail.com. Thank You!
