

Music Director position

St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church is seeking an organist/choir director. This will be a part-time job averaging fewer than 20 hours per week.

Job Description:

1. Capable of clear choral direction
2. Highly skilled organist and pianist
3. Ability to work collaboratively with others; adaptable
4. Familiarity with and/or willingness to learn Episcopal liturgy
5. Openness to working with other musicians (St. Bart's music efforts include a range of services and concerts)
6. A good music teacher, willing to learn

Also:

- Serve as a liturgical planner in collaboration with St. Bart's Worship Committee and the rector.
- Provide music for all regular worship services; coverage of special services to be arranged.
- Share in the administration of St. Bart's music program and communicate with the parish administrator about weekly music offerings and music needs.

How to apply:

Please forward a cover letter expressing interest, and a resume with two professional references to:

Peter Chandler, lordgeorgevv34@mail.com, with St. Bart's Music in the subject line.

St. Bartholomew's Church
396 Gilman Rd.
Yarmouth, Maine 04096
Attn: Peter Chandler, Organist/Choir Director Search Chairman